About PSstar Business Event Services

PSstar Business events services, provides news and information coverage on events and activities at events centers- Convention centers, Hotels and Resorts places. We also provide event planning services to companies and event planners that need an event planned.

Business Events Solutions & Applications

We develop and provide web-based convention services business solutions applications to convention centers and their business clients and events attendees. PSstar Business Event Services application solutions includes:

Event planning system for event planners: The event planning system, called PSstar Convention Management System, is an online-based convention services business solution that allows businesses or business event planners to automatically plan for their event activities online in coordination with the event center of their interest and choice. For example, the convention system combines all event resumes for automation. The system provides both critical front and back-end structure that event centers, planners, and business need to ensure successful events.

Event marketing system: The marketing system differs from the management system by helping business event planners or business to locate an event center(s) that can meet their event requirement and needs. The information on the system resume is made available to a variety of event centers that in turn responded by providing information and available resources to meet the needs of searching event planners or business events needs. The system provides a market bidding environment that allow event and business planners a competitive cost for their events and business activities planning.

Concierge services and services system: This allows business event planners to prepare for the services needs of event attendances. Event attendees can make plans regarding hotels, entertainment, transportation and other services associated with their business event concierge services can be pre-planned, payment transaction completed, and services schedule made, all in a timely fashion.

Our concierge system allows event attendees to enjoy a luxurious, headache free traveling plan.
